COOLIDGE WON FAME

Bay State Governor Became Known Over Entire Country as "Law and Order" Executive

Boston, June 14.—Calvin Coolidge, of Northampton, Mass., although in public life in his adopted State almost ever since his graduation from Amherst College in 1895, was little known outside of Massachusetts until the greater part of the police force of Boston went on strike in September, 1919. Coolidge was Governor of the State. He ordered out the State guard to patrol the streets of Boston, after a night of rioting, announced that law and order would be preserved and declared that the strikers were deserters and that their places would be filled by other men.

The strikers never regained their positions. Troops maintained order for several weeks and a new police force was recruited. The stand taken by the Governor carried his name to all parts of the country, and in his own State he was promptly nicknamed "Law and Order Coolidge."

JOHNSON AND THIRD PARTY

Petition From Portland, Ore., Sent by Wire to Senator Here
Portland, Ore., June 16.—More than 5,000 signatures were obtained to a petition circulated in Oregon yesterday asking United States Senator

Hiram W. Johnson to repudiate the platform adopted by the Republican national convention in Chicago, and to announce himself as an independent candidate for the Presidency, according to a telegram sent today to Senator Johnson by W. P. Adams, Portland attorney.

Mr. Adams said that he did not represent any Johnson organization that had heretofore existed, but that his telegram was sent in behalf of many supporters of Senator Johnson in the recent Oregon primary election.

"We heard that similar petitions were being circulated in New York," Mr. Adams said, "so we started them here in Portland today. So far the petitions have been circulated only in Portland but we plan to send them throughout the State."

Adams said that he and the group with which he is connected will continue to circulate the petitions until Senator Johnson declares positively that he will not be a candidate for the Presidency on an independent ticket.
